There is no charge for extra space at this time. The market provides a local outlet for the W.I.C. and senior voucher programs. We will provide electronic transactions for Credit and Debit cards using a wooden token system. This program requires that all vendors agree to participate. Do you agree to participate in this program? Yes No (Please Circle)

There is a $25.00 membership fee due when you turn in your signed application. Please do not include the first vendor fee with the application. The weekly vendor fee is $15.00 due each Wednesday that you are in attendance. You will be asked to pay this fee towards the end of each market day. If you are registering for all 20 market days and want to pay all the booth fees in advance, then the booth fee is $250.00, which is a $50.00 savings. All fees are non-refundable and non-transferable. If paying for the full 20 days in advance, you can mail your check in when you receive our acceptance letter or email. If you send your registration back via U.S. Mail, you will receive your acceptance letter in the mail. If you send your registration back via E-mail, you will receive an acceptance letter via E-mail.

Deadline for Application is April 19, 2019.

If you are new to the Market and this is your first time, then you may try your first week for free.

Please return the filled in and signed Application and Acknowledgement that you have read the rules to the address or email below. Also include any health permits or processing license with your $25.00 membership fee to:
